he will get what is coming to him. don't drop the soap. dale! i think a fair plea bargain would be to let the dentist pull all of his teeth without any anesthesia.

Does anyone have a link to his arrest story or any more information on this? He was just recommended to us by a friend but after reading this we are staying far away. Thanks!

The man knows how to talk to you and make you believe he's filed your taxes and for some unknown reason, IRS doesn't know what they're talking about. According to him, your paperwork is in somebody's desk in Austin so "don't pay any attention to those letters you get in the mail from IRS". We finally had enough and paid the price.

Ok, I just had my taxes done by him and every thing went well. Taxes are filled, copies in my hand and refund in the bank. Course I am just a small income person.

He's done my taxes for 3 years and I plan on going to him this year. Never had a problem, always received my refund soon.

You guys DO NOT use this person!!! He may file a few but he's terrible!!! He may be cheap but it's NOT worth it!!! Believe me, I know what I'm speaking of, he LOST several tax returns and accidentally sent them along with someone else's to the wrong office. I had access to all of your socials, addresses, places of work, I could have done anything with them. Sold them opened credit cards. I STILL have copies!!

I personally know this man and have worked with him, he's a crook, thief, and I wouldn't trust him for one second!

You are CRAZY!!! Do not do this. I swear he does not know what he's doing, anyone else is better. He stole money, lots of it. He lost tax returns, sent copies of your tax returns to the wrong office, I got them by accident and had access to all of your personal business, Please beware.

I just have to ask, where did you find him? Is he still in Splendoratopix, I've called information and cannot find anyone by the name of Dale Harding in this area. Is it Harding and Associates?

You seem pretty hostile towards him. It's probably a good thing you can not locate him. Since, my last post he filed my taxes again and I have already received my refund. I'm not sure why you don't think he knows what he is doing since he uses tax programs to file...doesn't seem like rocket science. At least that is my thought. I did hear about his arrest from a local paper but I figure it was a "he said/she said" situation since it appears he was never convicted because he is still doing taxes (felons can not do taxes). Besides, I've noticed several errors in local papers (aka gossip columns) and they rarely retract their misinformation. Again, just my thoughts. But if you don't feel comfortable with him you have every right not using him for your taxes. I was just stating that I have never had a problem and he seems legit to me.

I am hostile towards anyone that I personally audited and caught him stealing. FYI anyone can call themselves a tax preparer, he has no degree or certification of any kind. If its not rocket science why aren't you doing it yourself? Just saying.....and just a friendly warning from a local accountant.

Thank you for your advice. I hear you. I still like to follow our justice system and assume he is innocent until "proven" guilty in a court of law.(When I said it wasn't rocket science, I meant entering my information into the tax programs isn't hard, however, the whole tax process on the other hand make me want to run and hide). In my case with taxes, I'm not concerned since I don't see how someone can cheat me if they are just entering numbers in a computer program.

to straighten you all out... let me just tell you that dale harding is a felon. he got convicted for check fraud in florida as part of a check washing scheme. he does all of his taxes under his wife's name. at the same time he draws a disability check from the government.

Regardless of what Mr Harding may or may not have done, Jesus loves us all. Mr Harding & his wife are a Christian family. Despite what may have happened in the past we can all make a change. Know one has a right to judge him, only pleasing Jesus & the almighty God should matter. I really think we should all take a good look at our self be blasting someone else.

Luke 6:37
"Judge not, and you will not be judged; condemn not, and you will not be condemned; forgive, and you will be forgiven"

This man did my taxes for 5 years. I always got my return back but it took forever. I found out over the summer that I'm on the hook for over $14K to the IRS. My wife's uncle never got his taxes done and, his wife started paying their Dish Network bill out of my wife's bank account. We had to cancel that account because they kept doing it. I hope he gets what's coming to him.
